- 2006 - 2013       Producer
USC Under Construction Play Festival
 Oversee, coordinate and produce the annual festival featuring the work of graduating MFA playwrights from the University of Southern California. The two week festival, which yields three to four original scripts each year, employs professional directors and actors to bring the plays to life in readings for a public audience.
- 1998 - present
 2009 - present
 1998 - 2009       Artistic Director
The Umbrella Company
Burning Wheel
 Founding Artistic Director of Burning Wheel (co-founded with Kim Weild), a Los Angeles-based theatre company committed to the development of world-class theatre ensembles dedicated to the art of the theatre. In 2009, Byrnes established The Umbrella Company to continue the work of Burning Wheel. He continues to serve as the organization's artistic director.
- With a mission to support and strengthen the Los Angeles theatre community through training sessions with world-class theatre artists, The Umbrella Company offers year-round training in the Suzuki Method of Actor Training and the Viewpoints. Each summer, the training year commences with a two-week intensive, SITI in LA, led by members of Anne Bogart's New York-based SITI Company. Following the summer intensive, the company offers between three and five six-week/twice a week training sessions each year. These training sessions are alternately led by Anthony Byrnes and members of the SITI Company. Since 1998, over 1,000 theatre artists (actors, directors, choreographers, designers, technicians, playwrights, and dancers) have participated in the training offered by Burning Wheel and The Umbrella Company.
- 2009 - 2010       Producer
Louis & Keely: Live at the Sahara
 Producer and general manager for award winning, Broadway-bound, Los Angeles born musical, Louis & Keely: Live at the Sahara. Following their eight month run at the Geffen Playhouse, which earned $1.4 million in a 135-seat house, Anthony oversaw re-writes of the script with dramaturg Tom Bryant, brought on Tony award winning director John Rando, produced a New York script retreat, and contributed to the strategic planning for the production's artistic journey to Broadway.

2007 - 2009

Director of Cultural Relations University of Southern California

Served as the liaison between the University of Southern California and the Los Angeles arts community. Oversaw the creation, development and implementation of the USCArts website, which provides a unified portal for the five arts schools and the cultural offerings of Los Angeles and the university. The site resulted in usc.edu/arts becoming a top level domain at the university. Responsibilities included curation of Experience LA! as part of the University's Visions & Voices arts and humanities initiative. Experience LA! brought USC students to existing cultural events throughout Los Angeles. Conceived of as a way of promoting artistic engagement, cultural literacy and encouraging the next generation of arts patrons, the program drew from across the university's diverse undergraduate and graduate student body. Each event was designed to contextualize the work of art with either pre-show lecture or post-show discussion with the artist or an expert in the field. Events ranged from the Wooster Group's Hamlet at Redcat, ABT's Swan Lake, to Los Angeles's 99-seat theater community, walking tours of Los Angeles architecture focusing on the work of Thom Mayne and Frank Gehry, Agamemnon at the Getty Villa, Danny Hoch at the Kirk Douglas Theater, Essa Pekka Salonen's final concert at Disney Hall, and the opening of the Broad Contemporary Art Museum (BCAM) at LACMA.

1997 - 2005

Associate Producer of New Play Development Center Theatre Group (CTG) - Mark Taper Forum & Kirk Douglas Theatre (KDT)

For Center Theatre Group, produced, with Luis Alfaro, the Taper, Too, New Work Festival, and Play Development activities at the Kirk Douglas Theatre, Ivy Substation, the evidENCE room, and the Actor's Gang from 1999 to 2005. Associate Produced the Inaugural Season of six world-premieres at the Kirk Douglas Theater. Highlights from New Play Development include Nancy Keystone's Apollo, Universes' Slanguage, The Square (a collaboration of ten playwrights led by Chay Yew and directed by Lisa Peterson), Alec Mapa's Mapa Mia, Kia Corthron's Slide Glide, Jessica Goldberg's Good Thing and Sex Parasite, and Luis Alfaro's Breakfast, Lunch, & Dinner. Produced the work of Jessica Goldberg, Kia Corthron, Universes, Luis Alfaro, Alec Mapa, Culture Clash, Lynn Manning, Sunil Kuruvilla, Chay Yew, Jerry Quickley, Nancy Keystone, Charles L. Mee, among others. As Associate Producer of New Play Development for CTG, produced, co-ordinated, and oversaw over 100 readings and workshops of new work for the theatre.

In addition to producing work for CTG, served as the Project Coordinator/Manager for the renovation of both the IVY SUBSTATION and the KIRK DOUGLAS THEATRE. Served as the lead project coordinator on a $450,000 Ivy Substation renovation partnership with the Culver City Redevelopment Agency. The project consisted of architectural modifications to an existing theatre/community center to adapt it into a functional 99-seat theatre with full accessibility. The plan, generated by Anthony Byrnes with Matt Chaney of Steven Ehrlich Architects, consisted of several permanent additions and a series of semi-permanent additions to enhance the aesthetic, functional, and performative aspects of the space.

For the KIRK DOUGLAS THEATRE, served as Project Coordinator for CTG. The KIRK DOUGLAS THEATRE is an adaptive re-use of a 1947 streamline moderne movie theatre in the heart of Culver City. The new theatre houses a 317-seat theatre, which was completed on schedule and on budget in October of 2004 for $12.1 Million. Anthony began working on the project in 1997 during its early conceptual stage. As the project progressed, Anthony shepherded the project through all stages leading initial budgeting and programming studies, the architect selection process, and design development with Theatre Projects Consultants and Steven Ehrlich Architects. He negotiated the Disposition and Development Agreement and Lease Agreements, and finally, during the construction phase served as project coordinator and daily representative for CTG. Following construction, Anthony was in charge of the commissioning and outfitting of the theatre for its inaugural season. Anthony worked under board member Ron Arnault, Managing Director Charles Dillingham, and Artistic Director Gordon Davidson.
